

Explorer Code of Conduct

Attendance and Timeliness:

- Explorers are expected to attend all events.
- If an Explorer is absent more than twice in a year, he/she may be asked to leave the program.
- Explorers must arrive on time.
- Explore Austin is not responsible for Explorers after the pick-up time.

Participation:

- Explorers are expected to participate fully.
- Explorers are expected to help their team accomplish goals at all times during an activity.

Behavior:

- Explorers shake hands and say hello when greeting adults.
- Explorers demonstrate a positive attitude at and away from Explore Austin activities.
- Explorers respect themselves, others and the values of the Explore Austin program at all times.
Respect includes, but is not limited to:
  - Understanding that your behavior, appropriate or not, affects others. Gossiping, making fun of, and degrading other Explorers or Mentors is inappropriate behavior at Explore Austin.
  - Having the courage to accept responsibility for actions.
  - Helping others accomplish goals through verbal encouragement and actions.
  - Listening without interrupting.
- Explore Austin has zero tolerance for physical altercations at Explore Austin events
  - Participants involved in, but not limited to, pushing, hitting, slapping, and kicking will be dismissed from the Explore Austin program
- Leave all electronic devices at home.
  - Phones, Games and MP3 Players are not allowed at Explore Austin events.

If any of the above guidelines are not followed by an Explorer, he/she may be asked to leave the program.
